

Year 3 Homework

Below are some suggestions for additional homework you can do. These are not mandatory but they will be rewarded with extra house points for your house.

1 House Point	2 House Points	3 House Points	4 House Points
Tell your teacher a fact about the topic	Draw and label a map that shows where volcanoes are located in the world.	Write a poem of your choice on a volcano – It can be a rhyming poem, a shape poem, an acrostic poem or a free verse poem. It's up to you.	Make a model volcano – It can be out of anything. Just use your imagination!
Read a fact book about natural disasters.	Sketch a picture of a volcano and label the different parts of it using technical vocabulary.	Write a story about someone's experience of a volcanic eruption. Don't forget to use speech marks and paragraphs.	Create a power point Presentation on the process of a volcanic eruption.
Use sketching technique to sketch a realistic picture of a volcano.	Create a word search that contains technical vocabulary about a volcano.	Write a description of a volcano eruption. Be as descriptive as possible – use adjectives, verbs and adverbs.	Perform a music about a volcano. It can be a piece of music on guitar or piano, a song or even a rap.
Paint/draw a picture of a volcano	Create a crossword puzzle that contains technical vocabulary about a volcano.	Pretend you live in Pompeii, write a letter to your family describing how you feel about the smoking mountain near your town.	Write an explanation text on how a volcano erupts. Don't forget headings and Subheadings.
Do 1 extra read in your reading record	Do 2 extra reads in your reading record.	Write a book review on the last book that you read. Ask your teacher for a book review form.	Create a Word document that details how a volcano erupts. Don't forget headings and Subheadings.

Key Vocabulary

Lava

Lava Flow

Magma

Magma Chamber

Vent

Crater

Ash Cloud

Molten Rock

Earth's Crust

Metamorphic Rock

Igneous Rock

Reading

Don't forget to read at home 3 times a week. Make sure you write these reads into your Reading Record. A read can be independent or to an adult. A child can write their read into their Reading Record but it must be signed by an adult.

Spelling

Don't forget to practice your spellings in your spelling book 3 times a week. You will be test on these spellings on Friday.

Times Tables

Don't forget to practice your times tables in your spellings book. You will be test on these spellings on Friday.